STRANGE BLESSINGS

POETRY*PUPPETS*BALLOONS
AIR GUITAR*DANCING

Strange Blessings is the story of the Blessington Community Variety Show. Every year Blessington holds a show where the citizens strut their stuff: the librarian reads her saucy poetry, the plumber performs his air guitar, and Lord Mayor Frank the Bunny-Eared Angel does a dance number. This year something special happens when two of the performers discover true love.

Katherine Phelps: For seven years Katherine was a university lecturer in storytelling for computer game design. Since 2006 Katherine has performed stand-up, TheatreSports improv, and spoken word. In 2008 she wrote scripts and participated in story-development for Monkeystack Animation and Nickelodeon Cartoons. In 2009 she competed in Raw Comedy.
